

Irish Trad Tune of the Month

836 Prior Avenue North, St. Paul, MN 55104

Welcome to the tune of the month from the Center for Irish Music, a traditional Irish music school based in St. Paul inside the Celtic Junction. Starting November 2018, we are publishing a tune each month with dots, suggested chords and some basic background information including how CIM is connected to the tune. We hope you will enjoy this new community resource! Each month, the Irish Music and Dance Association will publish the tune in their monthly newsletter. Finally, thanks to Amy Shaw for all of her years of publishing the tune of the month in the IMDA newsletter!

Drogheda Lasses reel

www.centerforirishmusic.org
November 2018

Drogheda Lasses, also known as Eddie Moloney's Favorite, is a reel that CIM instructor Brian Miller started teaching some of his students as they were preparing to compete in the All-Ireland Fleadh in the summer of 2018, hosted by the city of Drogheda in County Leitrim. This lovely reel has been recorded by many musicians including Frankie Gavin, Morga, Altan, P.J. and Marcus Hernan, Eddie Moloney himself and more. See more information about the tune at thesession.org. This version is inspired by P. J. Hennon's version. Enjoy!

Go to centerforirishmusic.org/resources to find an archive of the tunes of the month!